Family Travel in Toronto

Toronto is Canada's largest city, and the 200-plus ethnicities together make it such a vibrant city for families to visit all year-round - a great place for shopping, dining, and exploring iconic attractions such as the CN Tower, Toronto Islands, Art Gallery of Ontario, Royal Ontario Museum, Ripley's Aquarium, Legoland and SO much more! Toronto brings in big-ticket touring musicals, blockbuster shows, an amazing variety of festivals and inspires all cuisines and cultures, from Canadiana to Italian, Indian to fusion, burgers to bistros. You will come back again!

CN Tower

Award-winning dining and entertainment destination and Toronto must-see with thrilling family fun for kids of all ages. Spectacular view, glass fronted and glass paneled elevators, panoramic floor-to-ceiling window walls, famous Glass Floor, outdoor SkyTerrace, award-winning fine dining, shopping, KidZone and thrilling EdgeWalk – world's highest “hands-free” walk on a building 356m (116 stories) above Toronto.

Toronto Island Beaches

Centre Island Beach

The family-friendly beach on Centre Island is relatively close to the ferry docks, with concession stands and change rooms nearby. Bike rentals are also available.

Gibraltar Point Beach

Take the ferry to Centre Island to get to Gibraltar Point Beach. This beach has no facilities.

Ward's Island Beach

Ward's is quieter and more likely to be used by locals than tourists. There is a volleyball court and a disc golf course for those looking for recreational activities and a nearby cafe for refreshments.

Bluffer's Beach

This long, sandy beach is right at the foot of the Scarborough Bluffs and offers some beautiful views. There are hiking trails and bike paths nearby and plenty of space for a picnic.

Cherry Beach

This is one of the more popular beaches in Toronto, meaning weekends can get very crowded, one of the better spots to try water sports like windsurfing.

Kew-Balmy Beach

This century-old beach is another popular spot that's jam-packed on warm weekends with swimmers, sunbathers, dog-walkers and buskers. The beach is close enough to Queen Street East that you can eat at one of many restaurants or cafes in the area.

Marie Curtis Park Beach

A popular spot for Long Branch locals. There's an off-leash dog park and playground for the kids - making it a good bet for young families.

Rouge Beach

Fishing is the most popular pastime on this beach and is home to more than half of the GTA's wetlands.

Sunnyside Beach

Popular for biking, rollerblading and skateboarding along the boardwalk. There's lots of trees and greenery, making it a nice place to relax and enjoy a drink from the nearby cafe.

Woodbine Beaches

Arguably the most popular beach within city limits, Woodbine stretches for three kilometres. There are multiple volleyball courts, a skate park and even an Olympic swimming pool. See website for more locations: www.find.toronto.ca/beaches

Toronto Botanical Garden

Admission to the gardens is free. Indoor and outdoor learning experiences are available for all ages including courses, garden tours and nature camps. During the summer enjoy dining at the garden café, a Thursday organic farmers' market, free guided tours and a free outdoor music series. Weekend programs are offered throughout the year for the entire family to connect with nature including a Garden Sleepover, Halloween Howl, Harvest Day and Earth Day. Located: 777 Lawrence Avenue East, Toronto www.torontobotanicalgarden.ca/about

Toronto Zoo

Take a walk through Indo-Malaya, home to tigers, orangutans, clouded leopards, greater one-horned rhinos and more! Visit the incredible 10-acre Tundra Trek featuring an amazing 5-acre Polar bear habitat complete with underwater viewing area. See the Gorilla Rainforest home, the Great Barrier Reef, the Kids Zoo, Splash Island and Waterside Theatre. Located: Scarborough-Hwy 410 at Meadowvale Rd 416-392-5929

Ottawa Family Vacation Ideas

Most kids can't wait for their summer vacation to start; it's a time for relaxing, cooling off and spending time on holiday with loved ones. Travellers who are planning a trip with their families should not miss all the amazing and interactive things to see while visiting Ottawa. It's all part of what makes Canada's capital so much fun to visit for families.

Indulge in outdoor wonders:

When Ottawa experiences gorgeous sunny weather, it's the perfect time to take advantage of open-air attractions. Many kids love animals, so a trip to the Valleyview Little Animal Farm can be a great start to a getaway. Children can pet the rabbits, baby goats, sheep and ducklings and help with their mealtimes, or take a trip to the play area and train ride station. 613-591-1126

Welcome to Crock A Doodle

A special place to gather with family and friends to paint and play. Enjoy some creative together-time transforming ready-to-paint pottery pieces into your own amazing works of art. We professionally glaze and kiln-fire pieces to a brilliant finish to become functional dishware, one-of-a-kind art and precious keepsakes. Its fun art not fine art, anyone can do it and everyone should!

Every child is born naturally creative...to make sure they stay that way, we need to nurture their creativity. Crock A Doodle offers endless ways for kids to unplug from technology and get back to wholesome hands on play. Our drop-in studio welcomes kids and families all day long...with endless pottery pieces and projects to create. We also offer kids classes, RA Day fun, movie nights and special events, as well as programs for schools, camps and clubs.	Looking for a fun and different night out? Chatter and splatter, gels and dab, giggle and squiggle with Crock A Doodle! Come on your own, come with friends, join in a Ladies Night or plan your own party. Perfect for special celebrations, birthdays and bachelorettes. It's creative, it's social, it's a hands-on hoost!	Want something fun to do with your little one? You can paint and play together, creating precious keepsakes and one-of-a-kind gifts. The earlier you start...the more amazing art you'll have to treasure forever. Our team is always on hand to help!
The best moments in life come from the experiences we share together. With Crock A Doodle you can gather together in an activity that everyone can do. Perfect for every age and ability, every generation, and friends new and old. Make pottery pieces as unique as each one of you!	Looking for a creative idea for your child's birthday? Our birthday parties offer colorful fun for girls and boys of every age...from preschool doodling to teen technique parties, and everything in between. Kids will enjoy hands-on fun creating their own pottery...birthday memories and art to treasure forever.	Big or small, we do it all! If you are part of a group of any shape or size, any age or ability, Crock A Doodle can offer a creative activity that everyone can enjoy. Come to us or we can come to you... perfect for corporate groups, community groups, schools, teams and clubs.
